Featured Events

The Theatre and Entertainment Arts (TEA) Graduate Exhibition of The Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts displayed the creative works designed and crafted by the students of the three Departments of the School. Exhibits on display included works that were created for the Academy's major productions in collaboration with the Schools of Chinese Opera, Dance, Drama, and Music, which are original responses to a range of artistic, technical and craft challenges.

[#recap] Breathing with *Shan Shui

Last Sunday, visitors swarmed the atrium and two floors of Central Market to await the mesmerizing performance of highlights from the dance poem Shan Shui: An Ode to Nature. Two excerpts, "Six Men of Vitue" and "Kindred Spiritings of Mountain and Stream", were showcased. Everyone was spellbound by the captivating movements of dance x martial arts. For some moments a connection was built between dancers and viewers as they breathed together.

After a big round of applause, the audiences also participated in the Q&A session enthusiastically. We look forward to seeing you all at the theatre from 14 to 16 Oct!

Highlighted Events

Being awarded the Academy Awards has always been the dream of all filmmakers. Stars shines in front of the silver screen, however, have you ever imagined how many hard works paid behind the scene? The True Colors Symphony is taking audiences back to the reminiscences, with some of the most memorable film music of all time featured.

Renowned pianist Colleen Lee will be joining us as our collaborative pianist, together with three rising visually impaired soloists Yijie Ding, Michelle Siu and Ethan Yang. Having performances in different combinations, from intergenerational duos, to our newly formed chamber groups and finally the 80 people orchestra, gathering together, we celebrate differences through music.

About Nomination of Representatives of Arts Interests for the Hong Kong Arts Development Council 2022

Established in 1995, the Hong Kong Arts Development Council (HKADC) is a statutory body set up to promote the development of arts in Hong Kong. The Chief Executive may appoint up to 10 persons nominated by the arts interests of Arts Administration, Arts Criticism, Arts Education, Chinese Opera (Xiqu), Dance, Drama, Film Arts, Literary Arts, Music and Visual Arts to be members of the HKADC.

The current term of office of the HKADC members will expire on 31 December 2022. The Hong Kong Arts Development Council is assisting the arts sector in conducting an exercise to nominate representatives of the specified arts interests for the Chief Executive's consideration of appointment as members of the HKADC for a term of 3 years with effect from 1 January 2023.

The event is solely organised by Hong Kong Arts Development Council. For enquiry, please contact nomination2022@hkadc.org.hk.
