

Sun Museum (一新美術館) is a non-profit, independent museum in Hong Kong dedicated to promoting Chinese art and culture. Since our establishment in 2015, we have presented 60 art exhibitions, ranging from ink, oil, and watercolour paintings to ceramics and photography. Our new premise opened in Sai Ying Pun in October 2024.

We are seeking an Assistant Curator to join our expanding team. The ideal candidate possesses a curatorial background and a strong passion and pride for Chinese culture, resonating with the mission of Sun Museum.

In this role, you will:

- conduct research for exhibitions and collections,
- assist in the curating, display and publication of exhibitions,
- support Museum operations, including implementation of museum programs, exhibitions and educational services.

To excel in this role, you must be:

- passionate about museum operations and making it a career,
- interested in Chinese arts and culture as well as non-profit work,
- flexible, mature, and self-motivated to work independently in a small team, and
- willing to work on weekends and public holidays.

To be considered, you must possess:

- a bachelor's degree majoring in history of Chinese art, art education, fine arts, museum studies, humanities or graphic design,
- minimum one year working experience, preferably in arts management, research and/or curating,
- good knowledge of Chinese art, history and literature, and
- excellent communication skills in Chinese and English.

Interested parties please email your cover letter and resume with current salary, expected salary, available date and contact information to general@simonsuenfoundation.org

All information provided will be treated in strict confidence and used solely for recruitment purpose. Only shortlist candidates will be invited for interview. Sun Museum Limited will retain the applicants for a maximum period of 6 months and may refer suitable candidates to other vacancies within the organization.
