

Intern - Artspace K

Located at The Repulse Bay, Artspace K offers a multi-purpose exhibition venue and gallery. From solo exhibitions to group exhibitions, the space caters to a variety of themes with the core purpose of promoting art among the public, ultimately bringing art from the museum to everyday life.

Artspace K will host art appreciation and education activities, including workshops and lectures about exhibiting artists, and looks forward to collaborating with partners and institutions to encourage public participation in art activities.

We welcome candidates with strong passion of art to join the Artspace K team.
