

Job Advertisement: Relationship Manager

About Us

The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of Hong Kong (MYO) is a registered charity founded in 2003. Over the course of two decades, we've had the privilege of nurturing many talented young musicians in Hong Kong. MYO's mission is to pursue artistic excellence, for MYO believes “Music Excellence with a Soul”, as well as to serve the community through music, emphasising the pursuit of high standards in musical performance, technique, and artistic expression while highlighting the emotional depth, passion, and human connection to promote arts education and social inclusion.

Key Responsibilities:

- Proactively build and cultivate relationships with various stakeholders, including parents, musicians, music educators, community organizations, and performance groups.
- Lead the strategic planning process to enhance the overall experience of orchestra members, focusing on musical growth, collaborations, and community performances.
- Develop and implement programs and initiatives to create a comprehensive educational environment that enriches the musical, cultural, and social experiences of our young musicians.
- Actively engage parents' involvement in the orchestra, developing strategies and initiatives to foster their participation and support in creating a vibrant musical community.
- Collaborate closely with the artistic director, conductors, and other staff members to align strategic objectives with our vision of providing a holistic and lasting experience for orchestra members.
- Attend weekly rehearsals, which are held on weekends, to engage with orchestra members and parents.

Qualifications and Skills:

- Bachelor's degree in Business, Arts Administration, Education, or a related field.
- Proven experience in relationship management and stakeholder engagement, preferably in the music, arts, or education industry.

- Strong strategic thinking and planning skills, with the ability to drive initiatives and lead change.
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills, with the ability to connect with diverse individuals and build strong partnerships.
- Creative and innovative mindset, with a passion for providing unique and enriching experiences for young musicians.
- Independent and self-motivated, with the ability to work effectively both independently and as part of a team.
- Knowledge and experience in music education and orchestral operations would be an advantage.
- Proficiency in both written and spoken English and Chinese (Cantonese and Mandarin).

If you are passionate about music, education, and fostering meaningful relationships within the community, we encourage you to apply for this position.

Applicants should send a detailed résumé with current and expected salaries to vivian.fung@pmf.org.hk.

All applications will be treated in the strictest confidence. Personal data collected will be used for recruitment purpose only